

PETER REYNOLDS PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

Master of Engineering Practice, BAppSc (Mining Engineering), BBus (Accountancy)
MAusIMM, CIM, AICD

EXPERTISE

Peter's primary expertise is in technical expert reporting, developing and managing feasibility studies and infrastructure projects, business improvement strategies, operations planning optimization, change management, underground mine planning and evaluation and review of management systems and procedures. He has broad experience in most aspects of the mining industry.

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

With almost 40 years in the minerals industry, Peter's high-level experience includes the following:

- 4 years, Zinc Corporation and NBHC Ltd: staff supervision, survey, ventilation, rock mechanics, mine planning.
- 5 years, Aberfoyle Ltd: roles included Mine Superintendent (Aberfoyle), Staff Mining Engineer (Melbourne) and Production Engineer (Ardlethan).
- 2 years, Gold Copper Exploration Ltd: underground tin and wolfram mining and processing, eluvial wolfram mining and processing.
- 5 years, various roles in Far North Queensland: Operations Manager of alluvial gold mines, marble dimension stone quarry and tile manufacturing plant and director and operations manager of an open cut tin mine.
- 5 years, James Askew Associates, Principal Consultant: established and managed the Cairns office, strategic mine planning, feasibility and due diligence studies.
- 3 years, Normandy Golden Grove Operations: various roles including Underground Manager.
- 7 years, Normandy Mining Ltd / Newmont Australia Ltd: Group Mining Engineer with responsibility for management of major projects.
- 2 years, Marlborough Resources NL, General Manager / Managing Director.
- 2 years, Olympic Dam, Manager Operations Planning and Mine Projects / Manager Mine Business Improvement: design and installation of operations planning process and procedures, development of operating plan compliance reporting system, management of business improvement team and mine risk management process, compilation and management of business improvement projects portfolio, management of project management team and development of capacity, capability and Pareto downtime reporting system.
- Since January 2006, AMC, Principal Consultant: management of AMC's UK office, whilst managing and providing input to feasibility, due diligence and technical studies and Competent Person Reports, management of the Adelaide office, and lenders technical representative.

Peter's full resume is available upon request.